In the church here, we began the new year with a family potluck dinner. People brought their food along as they came for Sunday school and worship, and following we shared together our meal and fellowship time.

The annual meeting was held January 11th. All officers whose terms were expiring were reelected for another 3 year term. Our elder who was reelected, however, had served only three months as he was filling an unexpired term. One of the decisions of the meeting was to proceed as soon as possible with the building of a vestibule to the front of the church and adding some sort of a spire so as to make it look more like a church. Also, on the schedule for church repairs is a new aluminum roof.

The adult Sunday school class has been moving along at a limping and dying rate for some time. January 15th they held a party at which the situation was discussed at length and some radical changes planned. They planned first to drop the opening worship; secondly, to meet over in the manse; thirdly, to serve coffee as they meet for discussion around a table; and fourth, to change the study material from the Christian Faith and Life series to the Christian Round Table series. Both series are from Crossroads magazine. As a result of this, average attendance has doubled, and there is certainly a new life and enthusiasm in the group.

We have held two of a series of discussion gatherings on Christian Beliefs. This began originally with plans for a series of communicant's classes but changed it so as to try to interest all present members of the church. Attendance, however, has been disappointingly small with an average of 4, so far.

We missed our scheduled services at Willow one Sunday night. We left here at the usual time but had not gone far till we ran into a freezing rain. First, then, there was a delay of putting on chains as it got so slick we could not make hills without them. Then, there were stops to give assistance to other motorists in trouble, and finally we stopped, turned around and went home as it had gotten far past time for our service to begin and we still had a long ways to go at a slow, snail pace.

Work on the manse is certainly moving along nicely under Mr. Lahmeyer's direction. It is going to take a little longer than originally scheduled as we have run into extra previously unseen jobs. Mr. Lahmeyer is certainly a skilled worker and has lots of good power equipment as well as knowledge of how and where to use it. This makes it so that he accomplishes a lot more work in a day's time than most carpenters I have worked with before.

One of the five sundays this month, it was necessary for me to be gone. On that Sunday, January 22, 1961, Rev. Wm. Zeiger filled in.

The Annual Congregation Meeting was held on January 29, 1961. This was preceded by a fellowship dinner, to which about 60 or so were in attendance. Following the dinner, the adults went to the chapel for the formal meeting. At that time, reports were heard and elections held. Two new elders were elected, namely, Mr. Charles Campbell and Mr. Brian McMullen. Both ~~of~~ these men should prove to be tremendous strength to the session of the church. They have both been very active since coming in contact with the church. Mr. Campbell is project engineer for Peter-Kewiet's atomic project on Ft. Greely. Mr. McMullen is the manager for the Alaska National Bank's branch office at Delta Junction. Mr. Buck will be asked to remain on the session, as Mr. Jack Hummel has been transferred to Yakutat. Church Treasurer is to be Mrs. Marian Norton. Mrs. M. Olmstead is S.S. Secretary-Treas. S.S. Superintendent is Mrs. Helen Brant.

Following the meeting, the film, CHANNELS OF POWER was shown to all.

As can be expected, the group are anxiously awaiting word of the coming of a full-time pastor.

1. ^a special meeting was held with the newly elected elders. This was for the purpose of giving them information as to thier office. Each new elder was given 2 booklets concerning his office. There has also been ordered, The Constitution, The Ruling Elder and Presbyterian Law for the Local Church. As soon as these are received, sessions will be scheduled to familiarize the men with these materials.

Both of the new elders seem quite enthusiastic about being elders.

2. On 2/19/61, the newly elected elders were ordained to this office. During this same service, there was a special time of prayer for two (2) soilders from the Cold Weather Mountain School who lost their lives in an avalamche.
3. One of the newly elected elders is wadding to have the session work on a long range plan concerning the future developments of the church and area. He is desirous of setting up goals for which he church canstrive.
4. The mens group have set a program of work, whereby they will start the installation ofthe furnace in the recreation hall. They are also planning to work on the basement of the rec. hall further to provide for more classroom space.
5. The pulpit seeking committee are almost at a stalemate, due to the lack of prospects. They are ~~xxx~~ planning to contact the Ministerial Relations Chrmn. of the Presbytery for guidance.
